

Paragraph 1: Talking about my experience of the candidate

I have known Alice for seven years, first as a colleague and then both as a colleague and a friend. We first met doing a course about emotional education for children at University. Since then, I have got to know her very well and have come to appreciate her many talents. Nowadays, we are working together as teachers at the same pre-primary school in Catarroja, a town close to Valencia.

Paragraph 2: Talking about qualities

Whatever she does, Alice brings three outstanding qualities to her work; a sense of responsibility, ~~her~~ competence and ~~her~~ great eagerness. She has always proved herself to be honest and hard-working and gives the impression that she is acting in the best interest of others.

With children, Alice has a strong sense of discipline but at the same time she is very sensitive, friendly and fun. At ~~the~~ school where we work, she is much liked and respected.

Paragraph 3: Talking about negatives qualities

It's difficult for me to say anything negative about Alice. I could say she is not always very tidy with her papers and her things however her classroom is always meticulously neat and clean. I reckon it is not a major problem and it doesn't really interfere with Alice's ability to do a good job.

Paragraph 4: Recommending

For these reasons I have given, I don't have any doubt in supporting Alice's application as an au pair. I believe she would care for your three children very well._
