Organisation	Enterprise	Company
organisation could refer to a not-for-profit group like the Red Cross, an NGO (non-governmental organization) like the Peace Corps, a political group, a trade union, etc.
Enterprise may be used to emphasize a sense of action or growth, almost as a compliment. An enterprise (used to mean company) may be starting, growing, or proceeding/moving on with vigor.
Enterprise is a word which in this context means exactly the same thing, but corporate, management consultants, and marketeers, and other wonky types use it because they deem it "more sophisticated and important sounding".
Company is a simple, universal word that means a collection (one or more) of individuals working towards a shared goal.

I've seen it first hand with my very own eyes.
