

2016-03-11 Friday Jesus Gimenez Marek Connell English notes

I have worked in the office.

I must write-up (redactar) the valuations.

[feɪməs] fɪməs

language

mother tongue

(lengua materna)

I don't do that often (amenudo) that example.

Studies

I can work do best work better.

A newspaper (periodico) whose which name is called +object.

The name of the paper is +object.

We can found find it on the Internet.

Ludicrous (ridículo)

I have a good vision view of the game.

V.I.P (very important people)

Only for to see that match.

To watch that those matches.

It's full on that those days.

It's added value (valor).

I'm studying a Master's (degree)

Some jobs-offer.

These prices seem cheap. They don't know what are the prices are.

There are is a conflict of interest conflict.

The objective is not the same that as the other.

A lot of people has have properties hire.

You can move go there.

back to back (sin parar)

From one thing to another

(uno despues del otro/una cosa tras otra)

"It has been a back to back day."

Let's play it by ear. (vamos a improvisarlo) (lo dejamos en el aire)

I live abroad [abroad] abroad (en extranjero)

A [fórene] foreigner (un extranjero)

[fóren] foreign (extranjero)

It costs an arm and a leg. (un riñon/ ojo de la cara)

I'll take your word for it.

(te cogo la palabra)

Don't take my word for it!

Adjective

Adverb
(Adjective+ly)

Present tense

Can is more common than able to and is less formal

past

could

general ability

"When I was younger I could speak 7 languages"

past

was/were able to ability in a particular situation or specific achievement.

"In the end I could was able to get on the plane."

Future tense

Perfect tense

Infinitive

but negative sentences:
wasn't able to = couldn't

Menu (la carta)

[FOREN] FOREIGN