I'm having a bad hair day.

To jump the gun/bullet: (adelantarse)

The idiom jump the gun has its roots in an athlete starting a race before the starting pistol is fired. It refers to someone or to an act when it is started earlier than expected, or when something says something without required thinking. To assume too quickly.

We found a new article.

We found a piece of news.

Tabloid (prensa rosa)

They were speaking about an old piece of news.

Old: (≈100 years)
