DIALOGUE - 10

TASK 2.10 INTERACTION

In this part of the exam, you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation.

The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

Keeping things tidy

You have agreed to share a flat with another student and you would like to decide what household chores each of you is going to do. You have been given a grant to study at a college in Glasgow for six months. It's a great opportunity but you are going to be a bit pressed for money.

Points to consider

- Save money to spend on other things
- Flat not too big (80 square metres)
- You're good at cooking, but don't like doing the shopping
- Groceries can be delivered to the flat
- Eating out every day expensive
- You need a tidy place to concentrate on studies
- Student hall meals not very healthy

CANDIDATE B

In this part of the exam, you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation. The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

Keeping things tidy

You are going to study a postgraduate business diploma at a college in Glasgow for six months. You have agreed to share a flat with another student but you don't plan to spend a lot of time in the flat. Your flatmate will bring up the subject of sharing the housework to see which ones each of you will do.

Points to consider

- Money is not a problem
- Cleaning lady once a week
- Reasonably-priced meals at student hall
- Keeping your own bedroom clean and tidy is ok.
- You hate cooking but love healthy homemade food.
- You need a tidy place to concentrate on studies
- Back home you never did any housework
