

2019-02-19 Tuesday Delia Prodan C2 Marek Connell English notes 1

dumy (el maniquí/chupete/tonto)

It's a bit over the top (=over the top.)
overkill
★ (excessive)

It's a whole different kettle of fish. (≈es otro mundo)
"It's a completely different situation."

Speak(ing) of the devil (diablo)
(hablando del rey de roma Roma)

Hat off to you! (respect/congratulations)

Someone who is in the showbiz.

He attained celebrity status.

Different sources routes that can lead to fame.

She is one of the richest women in the U.K.

Grapefruit /grape

Rebellious

Rebel without a cause.

The great names of the rock and roll.

Roll models

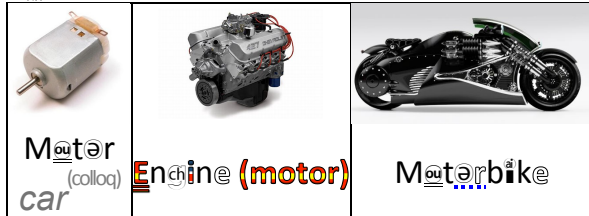

memorabilia (≈los objetos de interés, las pertenencias de un personaje famoso)

interference widespread

They don't pay so many much attention to celebrities.

The arms (brazos/armas) raise.

To go off on/at a tangent. (irse por las ramas)

Inherent

existing in something as a permanent, essential, or characteristic attribute.

"any form of mountaineering has its inherent dangers"

naïveté

Lo and behold (justamente/ y te lo puedes creer) (lo=old English for look)

"And lo and behold, it rained on the day that we wanted to go to the beach."

Duty /obligation

(el deber; el impuesto)

I work (in) shift (por turnos)

Shift work (trabajo por turnos).

To be on duty (estar de guardia)

Duty free (tax free)

Accessories (jewellery etc)

accessorize

