

2019-02-28 Wednesday Joanna Wójtowicz Marek Connell English notes 1

It would be appreciated.

I would appreciate it.

To shy away from +object. (atreverse a hacer algo /alejarse de algo)

Cabbage (la col/repollo)

very short cover (cobertura)

Yesteryear

last year or the recent past, especially as nostalgically recalled.

"the snows of yesteryear have gone"

Bottons

Botton

Where there is a will, there is a way.

Regularly

Beekeeper (el apicultor/ apiculturists)

Details

Method

A barrage of questions. (bombardeo)

Soul (alma)

The soles (planta) of my feet/shoes.

inner (interior) sole (plantilla)

1 foot

2 feet

I have high arches.

oven

Onion

I will put it in the oven.

To make do team building experience (estrechar lazos).

Blindfold (tapar los ojos)

It hinges (las bisagras) somewhat (un poco, un tanto) on...

method

doubt	debt
I doubt about /with +object	I have a doubt about +object.

To jump in at the deep end.

To be thrown in at the deep end.

(To start with the most difficult thing.) (≈precipitarse)

To be out of your depth

In a situation which one is poorly prepared or unprepared to handle.

To wing it /something (improvisar sobre la marcha/salir del paso)

1st cuando le conocí. 2nd el proceso
3rd cuanto tiempo conozco

1. "I ~~knew~~ met many new people at the wedding."
2. "That was when I ~~knew~~ met my wife."
3. "We went to London to ~~know~~ get to know people"
4. "It's a good way to ~~know~~ meet people."
5. "I enjoyed ~~to know~~ getting to know you."
6. "Online dating is a great way to ~~know~~ meet/get to know people."
7. "To ~~know~~ meet celebrities."
8. How long have you known your wife?
9. I have gotten to know him well.
10. Do you know Marek? No I don't know him well.

Stand-offish

distant and cold in manner; unfriendly.

Some conflicts can arise (surgir).

To be in the habit of verb+ing +object.

He thought that everything had to revolve around him.

False Friend
1.	disgust
2.	To argue	An argument
have a discussion about
3. To	discuss about	+object with someone.
	debate

The other throw some stuff into the mix.
Seeing your reflection through other people.
I'll try and put the brakes on my quick-temperdness.

Applied

Applicable

Damned control.