

2019-03-11 Sunday Belen Llobell C2 Marek Connell English notes 1,5

to juggle (hacer malabares)

to juggle many things at the same time.

Fishmonger (pescadero)

food-stand

Churros are a kind of dough, which is fried in oil.

Donut / doughnut

to bask in the sun

to lie in or be exposed to a pleasant warmth: to bask in the sun. 2. to take great pleasure

beekeeper (apiculturists) (el apicultor)

hive (la colmena / el enjambre)

We are at the top of the food chain. (la cadena alimentaria)

To make play a role (papel) ~acting

Pepper writing

Pollination

impactant impactful

Your	Day-a-day	routine.
	day to day
	daily

To + verb + object in on a daily basis. (diariamente)

They have your best interests at heart.

they are concerned about you and that is why they are doing something. She told him she only had his interests at heart.

MACHOU (male) chauvinist sexist	machismo
the person	the activity
1. A strong or exaggerated sense of masculinity. 2. An exaggerated sense of strength or toughness (machista)

Social and current an underlying feeling or influence, especially one that is contrary to the prevailing atmosphere and is not expressed openly.

"racial undercurrents"

Restraint (la limitación, la restricción)

Discretion

To turn your nose up at someone. / To mock (mofarse, burlarse)

It is not to be sniffed at!

Not to be ignored because it is valuable or worth having:
"A £2 million profit is not to be sniffed at."

To look up to someone. (admirar) ★

To look down on someone.

(Mirar por encima del hombro)

Frown (fruncir el ceño)

To frown upon (mal visto)

to disapprove of something:

"Smoking is frowned upon in many societies."

Alicia dijo que no le gusta caminar por esa calle porque los hombres siempre le gritan piropos.

Alicia said she doesn't like walking through that street because men always shout catcalls at her.

Workday

To move up the ladder (to advance in your job)

Politicizing

To be opposed to +object

Manifesto

Women and men enter the labour market in the same way.

Relentless (implacable, despiadado)

unceasingly intense.

"the relentless heat of the desert"